IT Security Architect

Description
We are seeking an IT Security Architect who's able to design and implement comprehensive infrastructure security solutions

Responsibilities

- Development of security concepts and architectures
- Selection of appropriate technologies, components and products to fulfill security requirements
- Steering and implementing IT security projects
- Implementation of security consulting in product development
- Realization / implementation of security systems or architectures

Qualifications

- Proven work experience in developing, implementing and driving IT security projects in networks and applications, technical and organizational
- Profound knowledge in the IT Security business
- CISSP, CIMS, CISA is a plus.
- Advanced English language skills
- Autonomous, analytical and structured working attitude combined with quality-consciousness
- Confident demeanor and convincing ability
- High customer orientation, initiative and creativity
- Team and collaboration ability in an intercultural environment

Job Benefits

- Flexible working hours with home office including all the equipment you need
- State-of-the-art design office in the heart of Bonn
- Private supplementary insurance with R+V insurance
- Promotion of your further education – training is financed by us
- Regular team events with all the trimmings, such as BBQ, live hacking simulation, summer and winter events

Hiring organization
NIMBIS technology

Employment Type
Full-time

Job Location
Remote work possible

Date posted
05/04/2023